He and his wife Jan have three children. He then completed a vascular/interventional fellowship at the University of Arizona Medical Center in Tucson. Residents are exposed to the academic and clinical practice of radiology, with the ultimate goal of successfully completing the advice and consequent excellence in the practice of radiology, whether in the private or academic field. We usually conduct interviews in November, December and January for positions that start 18 months later. He completed a Diagnostic Radiology Residency in 2018, as well as a Fellowship in Vascular and Interventional Radiology in 2019, both at Loyola University Medical Center in Maywood, IL, where he served as resident chief in his final year. He has a special interest in Interventional Oncology and locoregional oncology therapies. He is enthusiastic and loves walking, jogging, cycling, swimming, canoeing, kayaking, fishing, hunting, diving and is excited to explore the Pacific Northwest with his wife Danielle. There are 18 Diagnostic Radiology programs in California. More than 360,000 radiological examinations are carried out per year.
